Innovative, designer products

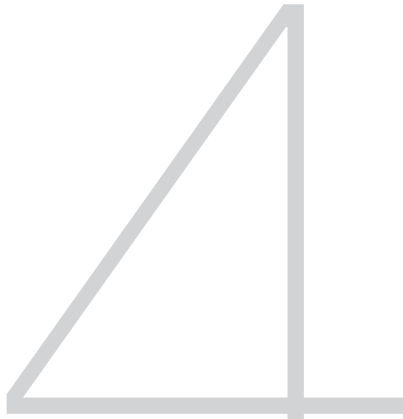

Jaquar's designs are the perfect synthesis of form and function. They have transformed the industry from being merely utilitarian to one that's aspirational.

At Jaquar, product designs meet global parameters on ergonomics, finish, material, safety, environmental impact and functionality. Jaquar products, designed by globally renowned designers, dominate millions of hearts across the world. Jaquar's approach to design has resulted in many achievements, including winning the prestigious IF Design Award among others, which illustrate the global appeal of our portfolio.

- Superb blend of shapes, styles and finishes

Coordinated product designs

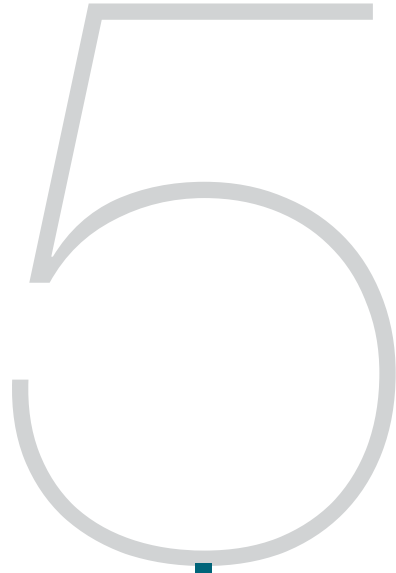

Jaquar products are designed not just with global trends in mind that aim to transform bathrooms into living spaces, but also to ensure that product ranges work brilliantly together. In fact, for every Jaquar basin, there's a Jaquar faucet that's a perfect partner. The end result is a coordinated bath interior with visual appeal that far exceeds that of individual items from different brands.
